Stability with a Longer Range

The CineView 2 is the latest addition to Accsoon esteemed CineView product family. Expanding on Accsoon US patented 2.4GHz+5GHz Dual-Band technology and featuring an all-new antenna design, the CineView 2 can seamlessly transmit 1080P 60fps video and audio signals across a 1500ft (450m) line of sight range, all while maintaining an impressively low latency of under 50ms.

Dual-Band Stable Connection With A Longer Range

Market Proved Wireless Stability

Leveraging our Dual-Band transmission technology and the all-new antenna design, CineView 2 ensures a stable connection even over longer distances.

New Antenna Design, Stronger Signal

Accsoon continues to push the limits of stable wireless transmission. With the benefits from the newly designed antennas, the CineView 2 surpasses the performance of the CineView SE/HE by extending the transmission range even further, now reaching an impressive 1500 feet.

Compact Design, Smaller Than Ever

- Easier to carry, faster to rig.
- 210g

Monitor On Up To Four Devices

Each CineView 2 transmitter can wirelessly send the video to any combination of dedicated CineView receiver units and smart devices (both iOS and Android) totaling up to four.

No Fan Noise, Quiet Shooting

Classic CineView design, ensuring efficient heat dissipation, quiet shooting with no fan noise.

Cross-Compatibility with Other CineView Models

CineView 2 are backwards compatible with the current CineView SE, HE and Quad models, allowing users to mix and match these as required.
