- Windows 10 (64-bit)
- macOS 10.11 or later

Tiny but mighty

Stream Deck Mini packs the same punch as Stream Deck. Meaning you get the same studio-level control to optimize your content. The same flexible functionality to up your production value. And the same time-saving integrations to maximize audience engagement. All in an ultra-compact package that's easier on your pocket.

Sets the new benchmark

6 fully customizable LCD keys poised to trigger unlimited actions. One-touch tactile operation. Instant visual feedback. Advanced yet easy-to-use software. Traditionally this level of control was exclusive to mainstream entertainment broadcasters. Now, it's at your fingertips.

Works with what you love

OBS Studio, XSplit, Streamlabs, Twitch, YouTube, Twitter, Mixer and more – Stream Deck Mini seamlessly integrates your favourite tools and platforms. From automatically detecting your scenes and sources to putting your social media channels to work, you do everything with a quick tap.

Streamlines your workflow

Hotkey actions make remembering keyboard shortcuts an issue of the past. Now, you launch apps and websites, open folders, instantly access pre-composed texts – control anything you want – without second-guessing.

Unleashes your creativity

Employ Stream Deck Mini to enhance your onscreen antics with GIFs, images, videos and soundbites. While you're at it, apply lower thirds and bookend your content with signature intro and outro graphics. Your options are endless, so explore and experiment.

Likes to get personal

Making Stream Deck Mini yours is effortless. Simply drag and drop actions onto keys. Assign ready-made icons or create your own. And switch them up whenever the need arises.

Grows with your needs

Turn keys into folders to amass and access as many actions as you want. Better yet, save unique key configurations as smart profiles for different games and apps. Alternate between them on the fly. And share them with fellow creators.

Multitask like a boss

If you think tapping a key to execute an action is impressive, you'll love Multi Actions. That's right – assign as many actions as you want to a single key, and launch them all with a tap. One by one separated by intervals. Or together, simultaneously.

Keeps you at the cutting edge

Gone are the days of navigating myriad windows to trigger an action and relying solely on automated plugins to boost your production value. Now, you hold the power to pioneer a new era of content creation. Now, you're in control.
