Features

- Teleprompter with Built-in Monitor
- Prompter has a built-in 9" display — no extra tablets or smartphones needed
- Designed to display not just video scripts, but also your Twitch chat messages
- Works with video-calling apps like Zoom, so you can maintain professional eye contact
- Drag and drop any window or app onto Prompter's display, just like a monitor
- Works with almost any webcam or DSLR camera, even the widest lenses
- Includes Camera Hub software to customize text and chat appearance
- Control Prompter directly from your PC or Mac — not a third-party mobile app
- Set up with ease using a single USB-C cable and intuitive backplate system
- Control with Stream Deck using a key press, a dial turn, or a tap of your foot
- Works with the Elgato gear you love, from Facecam Pro to Master Mount

With Prompter, create and connect with confidence. Present video scripts, read Twitch chat, or Zoom conference with natural eye contact. Streamline your setup with Prompter's built-in 9\" display, unlike other teleprompters that require an extra tablet or smartphone. Prompter works with almost any webcam or camera (even the widest DSLR lenses) and connects directly to your PC or Mac. Customize its display using Camera Hub software, or drag and drop any window — just like a monitor. Swap out cameras with ease using an intuitive backplate system, then plug in with a single USB-C cable.
