The Canon R line continues to expand with the introduction of the R7—a powerful camera at an approachable price point. The Kondor Blue Canon R7 cage pulls from many of the concepts and principles of its older siblings such as the Arca Quick Release system to easily bounce between photo and video modes. Additionally, the camera is loaded with NATO rails, mounting points, and a capable cold shoe with safety pin.

Protect your investment with a full-wrap cage made from premium materials backed by a lifetime warranty. The Canon R7 cage is built for versatility and ease of use for productions of any size. Be sure to explore all of the Kondor Blue ecosystem to further accessorize your camera.
