The OneMo Sling features a cohesive design, comprehensive functionality, and a sleek appearance. With its innovative " Sandwich" structure, organizing your gear is a breeze. The main sleeve holds cameras, drones, and iPads, while the adjustable middle sleeve is perfect for stabilizers or large items. The front sleeve stores small essentials and can securely hold a 500ml water bottle. Plus, there's a top-cover zippered mesh pocket for filters and headphones, along with an inner battery compartment.

Moreover, the expandable main compartment can reach 13.5 litres and vertically houses a 70-200mm lens and a 14" MacBook Pro.

OneMo Sling incorporates a thickened and widened moulded shoulder pad for comfort. Its large top opening provides easy access, while the bottom straps allow for the attachment of tripods. The shoulder webbing securely holds camera clips or carabiners. YKK zippers ensure smooth operation, and there's even a hidden AirTag pocket for anti-theft protection.

Unrivalled Organization and Easy Access

DIY partitions shaped at one go offer a wealth of storage options and keep your gear safe and sound.

Top Wide Opening Allows Unobstructed Access
