The OneGo Cloud Bag is tailored for urban photographers, bringing effortless street shooting with its high functionality and stylish aesthetics. Crafted from eco-friendly, recyclable microfiber materials for a comfortable touch, it offers four versatile modes and can be used as a handbag/shoulder bag/packing cube/camera strap. The magnetic clasp ensures quick and secure access, while the interior reinforced divider and a magnetic accessory pocket ensure organized gear storage. With added features like a concealed AirTag pocket and reinforced padding, the OneGo Cloud Bag brings both fashion and function on the go.

Four Versatile Modes Elevate Your Street Chic

- A Handbag: Your Everyday Carry Companion
- A Shoulder Bag: Embrace the Trendy Street Look
- A Packing Cube: Travel with Enhanced Protection
- A Camera Strap: Capture Moments on the Fly

(Note: When used as a camera strap, the camera weight should be ≤1.5kg).

Internal Dividers For Organized Storage

The interior divider allows for flexible and customized storage.

Small

- With a removable divider for flexible storage.
- Store mirrorless cameras with a single lens, like XT30, ZV-E10, or compact cameras like GR III, G9 X Mark II.

Medium

- With a thick divider to securely separate the camera and lens.
- 1 camera + 1 lens: Small or medium-sized mirrorless cameras (the combined length of camera+ lens ≤16cm)

Accessory Storage with Magnetic Pocket

There's a magnetic pocket inside the bag to neatly store cables and more.

Magnetic Buckle for Effortless and Secure Access

Featuring an innovative magnetic buckle, opening and closing the bag is a breeze.

Eco-friendly Microfiber Leather, From Trash to Trendsetter

PGYTECH prioritizes ESG principles and actively practices responsible investing.

The main body of the OneGo Cloud Bag is crafted from eco-friendly microfiber leather, which turns old shoes, clothing, and plastic waste into fashion gold, saving 30% to 50% on energy.

Also, compared with traditional leather, it boasts superior durability, tear strength, splash resistance and resilience.

Multi-Layer Padding

The bag's interior features multiple layers of padding, guaranteeing the safety of your camera.

Discreet AirTag Pocket Brings Theft-Proof Security

An inconspicuous interior pocket hides your AirTag, providing added security against loss or theft.
