Features

- Arca-Swiss compatible Quick Release Plate
- Ball head structure allows for flexible angles for more creative shots
- A Quick-release pin allows you to instantly (dis)mount your gear
- The universal interface and the 1/4"-20 conversion adapter allow for wide compatibility
- The square shape is Arca-Swiss compatible
- Aluminium alloy material

Flexible angles for more creative shots

The ball head structure enables 360°swiveling and 32° tilting for perfect shots that meet your different creative needs.

Quick-release pin

The action camera SnapLock plate contains PGYTECH's quick-release pin, which allows you to instantly (dis)mount your gear. Unlock the pin, then rotate to 90° and lock the pin to mount or dismount your action camera.

Arca-Swiss compatible

The square shape is Arca-Swiss compatible. Fits PGYTECH Beetle Camera Clip or different Arca-type tripod heads perfectly.

Wide compatibility

The universal interface and the 1/4"-20 conversion adapter enable compatibility between the GoPro, Insta360, DJI Osmo Action/Pocket, and most action cameras.

Light yet sturdy, easy to carry

The base of the plate and the ball head are made from aluminium, which makes it incredibly strong and light. The plate only weighs 40g, which makes it easy to carry around.
