POV View that'll Leave Everyone In Awe

Skiing, surfing, skateboarding, fishing... the CapLock Action Camera Neck Mount liberates your hands, allowing you to effortlessly capture mind-blowing POV shots with your action camera or smartphone.

Embrace Flexibility, Embrace Comfort

- Engineered with a stainless steel neck tube and aluminium strips, this gear allows flexible adjustment and comfortable wear.
- Silicone-coated and paint-sprayed for a soft, skin-friendly feel with reliable slip-resistance.

Patented Quick Mount Enables Effortless Snap & Go

Experience the new CapLock Action Camera Quick Release System - one-step, dual locking, unparalleled stability. Configured with an action camera quick-release plate and a 1/4" quick-release plate, this gear is compatible with action cameras and smartphones. (For smartphone use, a phone clip is required, available separately.) The quick-release plate supports four-way installation, enabling both landscape and portrait shooting. Elevate your visual storytelling.

Capture Moments With Unmatched Stability

Equipped with a chest harness strap, it ensures steady filming during your running and cycling adventures. The elastic webbing, combined with the user-friendly buckle design, allows for effortless adjustments to fit various body types.

CapLock Action Camera Quick Release System

Effortless One-Step Mounting | Dual-Lock Security | Versatile Compatibility | Seamless Integration

PGYTECH patented CapLock Action Camera Quick Release System lets you mount/dismount your gear instantly instead of using a traditional knob, and the side security lock tightly fixes it in place. It also includes a standard Action Camera QR Plate and a 1/4 QR Plate, making it widely compatible with action cameras, smartphones, compact cameras, and small mirrorless cameras.

The quick-release plate supports four-way installation, enabling both landscape and portrait shooting.
