Leg tip can be exchanged to various kinds of optional monopod feet available in the market

The SLIK PRO POD CF-834 is compact and durable monopod and is excellent for shooting sporting events or in small venues where a tripod will not fit or is not allowed. This monopod can handle long telephoto lens such as 300mm /2.8 or larger and making it a great tool to have around if you like to shoot sports, wild life and travel. Made from an advanced 8X multi-layered carbon fibre material, which is approximately 40% lighter, but just as rigid as the equivalent aluminium.

This monopod uses SLIK Speed Release lever locks to make extending and retracting the 4 leg sections a breeze. The SLIK PRO POD CF-834 weighs 500g! (not including a head) It also retracts to 500mm in length. It's small size and featherweight makes it a natural on any photo backpack, you almost forget it's there!

If you need to move around a lot to different locations but need some extra support the SLIK PRO POD CF-834 is a great option for staying mobile. The speed release lever locks make it a breeze to set up and pack away.
